We gather compiled academic foundations to pave and shape
uniquely, individually,
into our own paths.
Upon them, these lines we paint — wisdom, truth, and knowledge to be guidelines of our lives.
Along the way success will be constructing bridges of understanding between all men's souls.
And have it not be traveled lonely;
for patience and common sense
be our just companions.
Completion — standing upon its sturdiness, looking back over our shoulders,
let it proudly reflect on us
our creations, our decisions, our roads.

Enthusiasm, Dedication, And Spirit Lead Mr. Tom McCracken Down The Road Of Success

The name, Mr. Tom McCracken, can be heard echoing through the halls of Lindbergh High School. After receiving his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts Degrees from Southeast Missouri State University, Mr. McCracken taught for two years in Cape Girardeau, Missouri. Since 1968, he has taught General Biology and Advanced Biology at Lindbergh.

Contributing much time and effort to the reputation of this school, Mr. McCracken has become a legendary cross country coach. He has lead his teams to five state championships - one in 1972, and four consecutive titles from 1974 to 1977. In addition, he coached the track team from 1970 to 1977. He also sponsors the Co-Pilots.

Mr. McCracken's enthusiasm in the class room, as well as on the sports field, has made many deep impressions on those attending Lindbergh High School. He will long be remembered as an outstanding teacher, coach, and friend. Therefore, the SPIRIT Staff dedicates the 1978 SPIRIT to Mr. Tom McCracken.

We travel through life participating, sacrificing, giving of ourselves as we light our roads with our many talents. Yet those things we love and enjoy, the open opportunities, make it all worthwhile.

"It Went From A Place Where Everyone Knew Each Other To A Place Where You Can Get Lost In The Halls."

Lindbergh High School Celebrates Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

Cross country, pom-pon girls, COE, Cafeteria Three, The Commons, gymnastics, soccer, girls' softball, the pool, driver's ed., Hangar Dances, parking permits, and mini-course electives have become things we take for granted today, but twenty-five years ago, when Lindbergh High School first became a reality, people never even dreamed of them. Students had to bring their lunches because the building had no cafeteria until late in the school year. All has not been smooth going for the high school since 1952, but finally it celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary when the Class of 1978 was graduated in June.

Mr. Herman Haeger, math teacher; Mr. Alois Jaworski, physical education teacher; and Mr. Louis Lunte, science teacher; are the only members of the original high school faculty who remain here. They have seen many other teachers come and go and have been joined by former students returning as teachers. Mr. Bob Zink, music teacher, a member of the first graduating class, was one of these alumnae. After so many years and experiences at Lindbergh High School, they can look back and see many changes that have occurred.

Mr. Haeger believes the kids have changed through the years. Since there were fewer students in the early years of the high school, classes were more closely knit groups than in the 1970's. He saw the students of 1977-78 as more carefree than those of 1952-53. Peer pressure has become more important now while parental pressure was the ruler yesterday.

"Kids Are More Carefree Now Than They Used To Be."

The well-dressed girl of the early fifties wore cashmere sweaters, mid-calf length skirts, bobby socks, and saddle oxfords. Her boyfriend was proud to wear his letter sweater and straight-legged pants. Crew cuts were the only socially accepted hair styles for boys. An "anything goes" attitude of dress has become dominant. Rules for hair and skirt lengths have virtually disappeared. Slacks have become as acceptable for girls as for boys and jeans have become the school uniforms of today.

The sports program virtually exploded in recent times. In the early years here, football and baseball were scheduled during the same season. In order to have enough players, some students had to participate in both sports. Events were often delayed as some athletes had to finish one game before going to the other sporting contest.

The list of activities, including dances at LHS, has grown. In the early fifties, students jitter-bugged to the tunes of Bill Haley's Comets while "How Much Is That Doggie In The Window?" was the number-one song. In 1978, people bumped and boogied to the beats of KISS, Lynyrd Skynyrd, REO and other groups.

Lindbergh High School has grown from a rural school (where teachers reportedly went hunting in adjoining woods during lunch) to one of the largest metropolitan high schools in the state. The courses and clubs have increased as a greater number of students gained new interests and insights. A school is more than a building; it is the people and happenings within the building's walls. While the people have changed through the years, so has the institution we call our school. May Lindbergh High School continue to adapt to its people and travel up this same road to more success in the future.

Sharing responsibilities while striving for independence, we seek and find our ways along the road of life. Through participation, cooperation, and competition, we reach individuality.

CROSSROADS

High school is more than sitting in a class room. It is the memory of the Hangar Dance where you met that girl you had been watching in the hall every morning. It is taking three weeks to gain enough courage to ask that senior boy to the Turnabout Dance. High school is when you, a he-man athlete, donned a lacey frock and mockingly sang a soprano part in the Variety Show. Spending hours in front of the mirror, practicing lines for the school play is also high school.

During these four years, we travel academic roads everyday. Occasionally, we take a few moments for such laughs, tears, embarrassment, sacrifice, and rewards. The paths of pleasure intersect with the roads of learning. These times, these places, are often turning points in our lives, intersections along the two courses we are traveling. These are the Crossroads of our high school lives.

Below: Dwight Bouck and Debbie Triplett serve as master and mistress of ceremonies at the Homecoming Coronation.

Spirits Soar With Homecoming Victory

October sun shone on hundreds of Flyer and Pioneer fans who filled the stands to see Lindbergh battle Kirkwood. This was more than an ordinary football game; it was October 22, 1977, Homecoming.

At halftime, the Symphonic Band accompanied the Pom-pon girls who performed a military drill. Lack of student interest in constructing floats resulted in a parade of only cars and a broken school tradition. Clubs decorated cars to the Homecoming theme, "Red Sails In The Sunset". Spirit Maids were then introduced to the crowds.

Bursting through the Pep Club hoop, the football team ended halftime. The Lindbergh spirits and score soared as the Flyers overwhelmed the Pioneers, 34-0.

Right: Varsity lettermen escort Spirit Maids at halftime.

Red Sails In The Sunset

On a brisk October 22nd night, wind swished through red, yellow, and blue streamers hung from the doorways for the grand entrance. To the left, miniature sailboats on the horizon decorated the Commons windows. To the right, the music of Jay Barry played "Red Sails In The Sunset".

Coronation maids at the Pep Club-sponsored dance were Laurie Walter, Tracey Milligan, Sherry Kardell, Shelly Merritt, and Lynn Palecek. John Ferris, Steve Mosier, Kevin Tully, Mike Hyde, and Craig Hooper were Homecoming Dance Knights. The evening's climax was the crowning of Lynn Palecek and Steve Mosier, newly-elected royalty.

The Coronation, the highlight of the Homecoming Dance was emceed by Debbie Triplett and Dwight Bouck. They first introduced the attendants: Diane Robben, Debbie Lynch, Sherry Merritt, Connie Bearden, Lori Weiler, Dave Robben, Steve Duban, Jay Myers, Bob Augustine, and T. J. Sundhausen. Maids and knights were introduced; then, the new queen and king were announced. Retiring Queen Bonnie Boniface and King John Dunda crowned their successors, Lynn Palecek and Steve Mosier.

Disco LHS- Pass And Hangar Dances

A dim setting; loud, fast-moving music; exchanging new dance ideas; and GET DOWN! November 11, December 9, February 25, and May 12, the Commons was rocked by Progress, Faustus, March Hare, and First Addition.

Though tickets rose to $1.50 this year, Student Council was successful in making each dance a sell-out.

The Pass Dance, September 9, guest starred a disc jockey from the DISCO ROCK SUNSHINE PRODUCTIONS. The dance was dedicated to students participating in fall sports, as well as those who purchased a fall-season-sports pass.

Afterwards, McDonalds and Pizza Hut were usually swamped with the boogied-out student body.

What A Variety!

"The Sky's The Limit"

Devoting much time, talent, and enthusiasm, students provide an evening of entertainment.

"The Sky's the Limit" when Lindbergh students try to predict the weather. Stage-struck students presented their own weather almanac in Gym One on November 3,4,5,1977, before sell-out audiences.

Variety was the key to the performance as singers and dancers foretold days of rain, snow, and sun. They took a look at Plains, Georgia and then travelled into outer space. Faculty sponsors Mrs. Peppers and Mr. Weiss organized and directed the weather-minded cast well. They received valuable assistance from student directors Beth Horkits, Margie Terranova, and Laura Morris.

Acts involving novice as well as veteran performers, freshmen as well as seniors, made this a most-participated-in production. Therefore, the 1977 Variety Show cast found an enjoyable way to earn money for the Lindbergh Scholarship Fund.

Couples entered their dreamland of "Once Upon a Time" by crossing a flower-decorated bridge. A mural, depicting the dance theme and showing a fairyland scene, covered the Commons walls. A brick castle in the background set the scene for the coronation of Gigi Weber, 1978 Snow Queen.

While couples minds drifted into their own nostalgic lands, their bodies moved to the tempo set by the Younger Brothers at the January 28th Student Council-sponsored dance.

"1984"

Spellbound, the audience watched the terrifying, moving story of "1984" as Big Brother watched everyone. Margie Terranova and Mike Cobb excellently portrayed Julia and Winston, a couple in love, who rebelled against the loveless society in which they lived. Sharon Underwood, Joe Hulser, and Mike Heimos also performed superbly as unemotional characters in the play.

Mrs. Peppers ingeniously trained the student actors to dramatically show the callous, uncaring sides of human nature as George Orwell depicted in the novel on which this drama is based. Beth Horkits, student director; Sue Walsh, stage manager; and her assistant, Jean Bornholdt, also worked hard to make the winter play a success on February 9, 10, and 11, 1978.

"Auntie Mame"

"Auntie Mame" captivated the audience from the moment the curtain rose until the final curtain call. Giving an excellent performance in the title role, Sue Womack lead the cast of thirty-two before enthusiastic crowds on April 27, 28, 29. Maureen Corbett, Auntie Mame's maid; Kevin Mitchell, the butler; and Mike Starkey, Mr. Babcock, were a large credit to the play. Kurt Koenig not only made his debut but also became the first middle school student to appear in a high school play here. Mr. John Weiss, faculty director; Margie Terranova, student director; and Beth Horkits, stage manager, were also to be applauded.

The many rounds of applause that rang through Gym One demonstrated that the 1978 spring play was among the most popular performances ever at Lindbergh.

Stairway To Heaven

Couples entered through the "Pearly Gates" into an April 8th night filled with excitement. The Commons wall was covered by a mural, symbolizing the theme, "Stairway to Heaven". On it, a large staircase surrounded by clouds, led up into the sky.

The coronation was held in Gym #3 as Brian Faerber was enthroned as the new king in front of a colored rainbow. Music, provided by the band, Jay Barry, filled the Commons as couples danced up their stairway to happiness.

Spirit Week

Heads turned and eyes followed the senior, tuxedo-clad and wearing an arrow through his head, as he casually strolled down the hall. Coins clanked into jars labelled "Shave It" as students hoped to see a clean-shaven Dr. Amen at the end of the week. Green and gold were everywhere for it was April 24-29, 1978, Spirit Week.

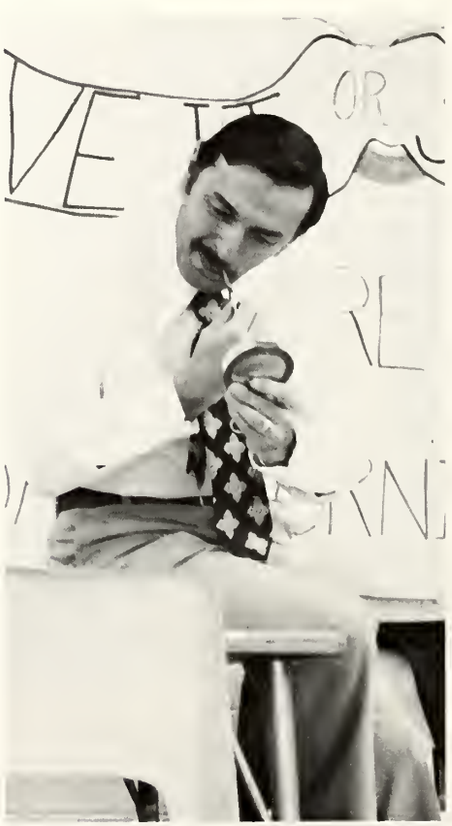

On Monday, huddled around a paper-covered wall and scribbling furiously, students carried out Graffiti Day then went to a student-conducted class where teachers and selected students changed places. Spirit was evident on Tuesday as green and gold were the colors of the day. Lindbergh also celebrated the week with its own version of an ice cream social at the end of sixth hour. Eyes strained to read T-shirt after T-shirt on Wednesday. Girls in dresses and boys in suits carried out Thursday's theme to dress-up, but coordinated outfits were not be seen on Friday, Clash Day. Plaids, stripes, and flowers were purposely mixed as students also showed off their favorite head gear. An anxious student body crowded into the Commons to see the results of week-long voting. By dropping money into jars marked "Save It" or "Shave It", students determined the fate of Dr. Amen's moustache. They saw the outcome as he entered the Commons Friday morning with razor in hand.

Songs Supplement $cholarships

Gym Two was filled with a capacity crowd of parents, friends, and music lovers. The night was a sell-out. Sounds of the A Cappella Choir, Symphonic Band, Mixed Choir, Stage Band, Ensembles, and Madrigal Choir warming up and tuning their instruments drifted across the room.

Lindbergh musicians presented their talent and donated their time to entertain parents and help send fellow students to college. Proceeds from the evening were donated to the Lindbergh Scholarship Fund. Combining an enjoyable evening with a worthy cause, the music groups carried on a school tradition — the Night of Music.

"Moon Shadow"

A rainbow of colored streamers greeted couples attending the 1978 Junior-Senior Prom on June 3rd. Projectors flashed an array of colored lights to create a moonlit atmosphere in the Commons as the junior class hosted the 1978 seniors. Dim lights from the ceiling and a softly illuminated rainbow exemplified the dance theme, "Moon Shadow" as Bob Kuban and his Brass Band provided the music.

Retiring Queen Lisa Avey crowned the excited Shelly Merritt as the 1978 Prom Queen. Senior maids were Sue O'Keefe, Sherry Kardell, Cindy Jackson, Lisa Loeffelman, and Sharon Brooks, while the Junior maid was Sharon Digavanni.

Class Of '78 Marks Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

Fears of rain subsided as the sun appeared through the clouds on June 8th for the 1978 graduation ceremony. Lindbergh's twenty-fifth commencement exercises symbolized the end of one age and the dawning of another for the 927 graduating seniors. After an introduction by Mr. Gray, Jennifer Parres offered the Challenge to the Class of 1978 and Jim Steck followed with the Response. After Dr. Amen presented the class to parents, friends, and the Board of Education, the graduating seniors received their diplomas officiating their achievements.

BYPASSES

Participation makes high school different from other school years. Participation was feeling the butterflies as you awaited your award and hoped your name was pronounced correctly at National Honor Society initiation. You worked for hours and hours on dance decorations to transform the Commons into another world. Then, there was the time you forgot it was your turn to bring the chess set. Participation was signing up for the yearbook staff and finding that you just signed your life away.

These extra activities bring people closer together as we share common interests. Of course, classrooms provide places for learning but so do our associations and experiences. As we travel the roads to knowledge, joining these organizations provides alternate roads to learning. These are our Bypasses to education.

The SPIRIT Staff, National Honor Society, dance committees, Pep Club, and French Club are major extra-curricular activities.

SPIRIT

The spark that lit the fuse was the statement, "Our first deadline is December 10 . . . " Thus the hustle and bustle of putting together the 1978 SPIRIT began on September 6, 1977. Since that day, Room 122 has never been the same. The vocabulary of all staff members was narrowed down to a few short sentences: "Who's got the white-out?" "Can I have a white cropper?" "Where are the senior boys' names?" "Where are my pictures?" "Ken!!" "Who's the one that doesn't know his alphabet?" "Sell those yearbooks!!" "What's Vincent Price's phone number?" "You mean only one day until deadline?!" "Miss K — HELP!!" When that first deadline soon rolled around, last minute details were underway. Typewriters clicked away words of wisdom as copy sheets and 3-R planners were thrown in every corner.

Throughout the year, the staff worked extremely hard for many long hours gathering new ideas to fill the pages of the SPIRIT. Recording the many memories and events of Lindbergh High School, the editors and staff members completed their jobs without losing their sanity.

Finally, a loud sigh of relief was heard on June 12, 1978, as Miss Kerlagon and Co-Editors- in-Chief, Trish Werner and Charlotte Weiss put the last pages in the mailbox to complete our final deadline.

PILOT

Extra! Extra! Read all about what's happening around L.H.S. The PILOT staff, led by Editor-in-Chief Beth Horkits, kept the presses hot with the latest scoops on school dances, sports, campus life, and editorials concerning school and community issues. One new feature this year, "Christmas Wishes," attracted more reader interest. Due to inflation, the PILOT took a slight jump from fifteen to twenty cents. Sponsor, Mrs. Monaco, the reporters, photographers, and sellers added their talents to dispatch one of the most popular PILOTS ever.

Proud parents, seated in the bleachers, peered down at the group of students filing into Gym Three. Their sons and daughters were finally receiving one of Lindbergh's highest awards. Initiation into National Honor Society was the reward for 218 sophomores, juniors, and seniors who lived up to the NHS standards for demonstrating outstanding character, leadership, scholarship, and service traits.

Members had to live up to N.H.S. rules and standards to retain membership. Seniors were expected to maintain a 3.0 grade point average while juniors were to have a 3.25 GPA, and sophomores a 3.5 GPA. Proving itself as a working body as well as an honorary one, the organization established a rule on mandatory meetings and held its annual toy and clothing drive at Christmas.

Quill And Scroll

Hands were raised as the high school journalists were initiated into the International Order of Quill and Scroll. This honorary society for outstanding students excelling in the journalism field selected its members from the SPIRIT, PILOT, and KLSR staffs. Under the leadership of Mrs. Leutwiler, Miss Kerlagon, and Mrs. Monaco, seventeen students were granted admission into this honorary organization.

Row One: P. Lischer, A. Clarida, H. Oklischan, B. Watts, Row Two: G. Jones, C. Boettcher, S. Wood, J. Parres, S. Underwood.

Row One: K. Warren, K. Casey, C. Weiss, T. Werner, C. Almstedt, B. Hildreth, Row Two: J. Kardell, J. Toenges, M. Thomas, J. Toler, M. Steck.

Row One: Mrs. Fanter, Sponsor; J. Stanton, J. DaSilva, A. Burr, S. Womack, A. Schiff, Row Two: Ms. McCray, Sponsor; L. Endebrock, L. Ohlemeyer, M. Terranova, M. Miller, S. Stanhope, A. Hoelzer, S. Decker, Row Three: L. Launch, C. Wood, L. Gerdemann, R. Craig, K. White, J. Judd, B. Cook, Row Four: K. Kilpatrick, A. Escott, J. Donnelly, C. Dahl, T. Riney, S. Wells, J. Kinsella, J. Parres, T. Moody.

Questions poured out of students' mouths at the Lyceum Club meeting. Members were busy interviewing one of many guest speakers who came from all over St. Louis including Purina Farms and the Missouri Conservation Commission. By questioning their guests about occupations and the future, Lyceum members planned their own futures.

Creative Writing

In Creative writing club, amateur writers from Lindbergh put forth their efforts to publish their works. More members were drawn to the club this year due to an interest in the school literary magazine. Meetings gave members a chance to criticize and discuss each other's writing.

The curtain rose and a round of applause filled the air as another presentation of the Drama Club opened for the first night. Drama Club is for those students who have participated in the plays and wish to pursue their interests in the dramatic field outside of the classroom atmosphere. This year, with Mrs. Peppers and Mr. Weiss's guidance, Drama Club presented the Freshman and Sophomore Workshop, "Auntie Mame", and "1984". Each year, the annual Spring Banquet is held and awards are given for Best Actor and the Most Active Member.

Thespian Society

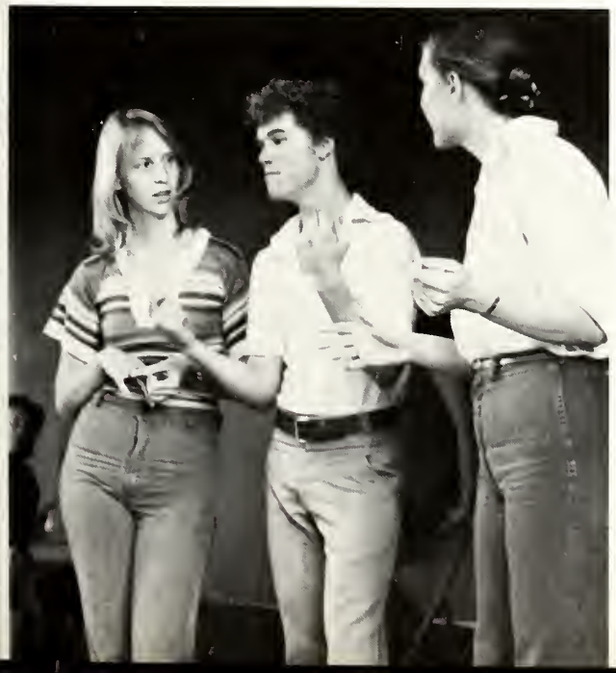

Another round of applause rang in the student actor's ears as the curtain closed. This was not the only appreciation he would receive for his efforts to make an L.H.S. dramatic presentation a success. Excelling in the dramatic field (whether it be performing or working behind the scenes), he would be honored with selection of membership into the Thespian Society. After working to earn points for participation in dramatic affairs, students were initiated into this honorary organization.

Pep Club

The 1977 Homecoming festivities proved to be the highlights of the year for the L.H.S. Pep Club. Members planned and were active participants in activities at the football game and dance on October 22. Other events planned by Pep Club, a sock hop and donkey basketball game, were cancelled due to bad weather. Despite these set-backs, club members provided food for teams, made rally signs, and sold spirit ribbons to promote school spirit.

The fourth hour daily announcements came on the intercom. The voice announced that during lunch you could purchase dance tickets for Saturday night. Student Council members prepared to go to the Commons and Cafeteria II to begin another day at the sales booth. Council members were kept busy in 1977-78 by sponsoring the Snow Queen Dance, Hangar Dances, Heart-o-Grams at Valentines Day, and selling senior jerseys. Approximately 200 donors joined the council in trying to help others through a blood drive on February 14 and 15. Besides sponsoring the School Store, the council also organized class orientations in the summer and the Awards Assembly in the spring. The purchase of a copy machine for the library was only one of many ways the 1977-78 Student Council worked to benefit Lindbergh students.

School Store

School necessities were at students' fingertips in the Student Council- operated store. Open during all lunch periods on alternating days, the School Store supplied students with pens, pencils, notebooks, and paperbacks for class use. School-spirit minded people could buy sport pins, L.H.S. pep banners, and gym bags. Due to inflation, letters, previously awarded for sports achievement, had to be purchased from the School Store in 1977-78. Mr. McGuffey, Student Council sponsor, reported that a wider variety in supplies led to a boom in business.

S. Walsh, M. Meyer, L. Baleh, T. Diekmann, M. Walther, S. Digiovanni, A. Burr.

Home Economics Club

Visions of Betty Crocker come to mind when one hears of the Home Economics Club; however, there is more to this organization than cooking. Besides touring the kitchens of Laclede Gas, the club hosted a speaker from Mary Kay Cosmetics who, with the aid of L.H.S. students, demonstrated beauty and grooming techniques. Home Ec Club members also learned about feminine self-defense from a Tracy Karate representative. The Home Ec Club showed that Lingbergh girls were concerned with more than food and fashion.

Future Teachers Of America

Reading, writing, and arithmetic are only a few essentials a person must know before becoming a teacher. Trying to acquaint themselves with the profession, a group of Lindbergh students reformed a club which had been inactive for several years. Future Teachers of America was restarted for people interested in careers in education. They heard guest speakers and visited different schools to see new teachers and classroom situations. FTA activities went statewide as the club attended a Missouri State Teachers Association gathering and the Future Teachers of America meeting.

Future Medical Careers Club

Taking temperatures and counting pulses were not the only things Future Medical Careers did. The club hosted speakers from United Way, Red Cross, and Highland Center who explained their professional duties and open opportunities in their fields. Snow days forced the cancellation of some F.M.C. activities, but the club did manage to conduct a CPR life saving course in February.

The king, queen, bishops, and pawns were set for an afternoon game. In regular after-school sessions, players practiced concentration as they brushed up on their skills. By competing against nine other area schools, L.H.S. players worked to checkmate opposing teams in the St. Louis Metropolitan Chess League.

Row One: J. Judd, J. Boeger, J. Reed, Row Two: B. Fischer, D. Dripps, Row Three: Mr. Kettler, Sponsor; M. Linter, Sponsor.

Thomas, Mrs. Reiter, Sponsor.

Foreign Language Clubs

L.H.S. wasn't strictly all American .... In the Duetshland part of L.H.S. students went to an Oktoberfest, Christmas caroled, and wrote a few exchange letters to their native country.

Comrades of the Russian Club participated in bowling, rollerskating, and prepared a Russian dinner.

French Club kept busy with a cheese tasting party, caroling French carols, and a trip to both Ft. de Chartres and Ft. Kaskaskia.

For students who could not get enough Respublica Romana in class, Mr. Skrobacki provided additional information on Roman culture, civilization, and background. Club members had hopes of a Latin Club dinner but they had to cancel their plans due to a lack of interest.

The highlight of all clubs, the annual soccer tournament, was played on October 21st. The Russians proved best overall as they "out-footed" the other countries.

Advanced Biology Club

The aroma of broiled copperheads and barbecued sparrow lingered in the halls as Advanced Biology Club entertained parents with a wildlife dinner at Open House. Besides satisfying appetites with wildlife, club members also took a field trip to Mingo Wildlife Area to observe animals and plants in their natural settings. To learn even more about the biological world, ABC used an ecology computer, a simulation game involving energy use and environmental survival. Guests from the Meramec Community College and the University of Missouri — St. Louis visited the club. Lindbergh graduates now working in the microbiology, nutrition, and conservation fields returned to also help ABC members plan their scientific futures.

Row One: J. Judd, J. Donnelly, K. White, Mr. Kassing, Sponsor; Row Two: Mr. Lunte, Sponsor; K. Kilpatrick, J. Sartorius, S. Swallow, J. Ronecker, L. Horn.

Environmental Problems Club

With increasing enthusiasm, Mr. Eason and a growing number of naturalists took float trips to study river conditions, campaigned against the Meramec Dam issue and cleaned the environment as they journeyed through the Missouri countryside. At regular meetings, they discussed the actions they might take in other issues concerning environmental problems.

Astronomy Club

With telescopes positioned, Astronomy Club members viewed the elliptical eclipse. Constellations and the planets of the Universe also provided subjects of interest for the Astro Club. Guest speakers and visits to space lectures helped provide background information for these science-minded students.

Row One: J. Ronecker, Treasurer; J. Ramberg, President; M. Rzchowski, Vice-president; Row Two: P. Ramberg, C. Boetcher, D. Dummeyer, C. Lynch, D. Rensch.

Forensics And Debate Clubs

"Speak up!" became a motto for the Forensics and Debate Clubs in 1977-78. Working to improve their methods of public speaking, club members participated in tournaments at Chaminade, Riverview Gardens, and Parkway West. Lindbergh's spring break (scheduled earlier in the year than other area schools) prohibited teams representing both clubs from competing for the conference title.

Synchronized Swim Club

Pointing toes and practicing graceful swirls with exact strokes made the Synchronized Swim Club show a success. "Fantasy Land" provided the theme for the 1978 water ballet performance. Under Miss Buckner's direction, the girls of the team practiced and finally exhibited their aquatic grace in the December 20, and 21, 1977, presentation.

The athletic elite proudly displayed the reward of their contributions to Lindbergh sports as they wore their varsity letters on sweaters and jackets. After working hard to earn their letters, these athletes were invited to join the Letterman's Club. They could also be seen off the field working diligently in concession stands. The proceeds were used for new athletic equipment.

Vertical-Row One: T. Cruce, J. Toenges, C. Knox, T. Piesbergen, C. Kardell, S. Werkmeister, S. Swallow, H. Fischer, J. Marx, C. Glickert, J. Leigh, L. Decker, C. Kerls, Row Two: E. McCracken, P. Athletic Assistants

Sports-minded girls pooled their talents to assist their favorite athletic teams in 1977-78. The Co-Pilots, Basketball Statisticians, Wrestlerettes, and Soccerettes kept scores and times, set up equipment, and even chased stray balls. Enthusiasm and interest in sports were requirements for membership in these clubs.

Music Makers

Seventeen trombones led the musicians on; the coronets joined in the song. There were rows and rows of the finest Lindbergh music virtuosos of every shape and kind.

Working to develop students' talents the instrumental music directors, Mr. Brunner, Mr. McCready, Ms. Chow, and Mr. Tobler, and the vocal directors, Mr. Bye and Mrs. Vaughn, led Lindbergh's many music groups through countless rehearsals. Their efforts were rewarded with rounds of applause at their many performances. Highlights of the year came when the music organizations entertained parents, the faculty, and friends at the Christmas and Spring Concerts and the annual Night of Music. Lindbergh exhibited its ability to the rest of St. Louis when the instrumental and vocal groups travelled to festivals at St. Louis University, Florrisant Valley Community College, and the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Vocalists had to demonstrate a high degree of talent to become part of the Madrigal Choirs. A second exceptionally talented group of vocalists is the A Cappella Choir, which consists of juniors and seniors who show the ability to perform without accompaniment. These accomplished singers performed classical as well as modern music throughout the year.

Vocal Instructors: Mrs. Vaughn and Mr. Bye.

Instrumental Instructors: Mr. Brunner, Mr. McCready, Ms. Chow, and Mr. Tobler.

Freshmen vocalists demonstrated their talents in the Ninth Grade Choir which met on alternating days and Ninth Grade Ensemble which met daily. Tenth, eleventh, and twelth grade students wishing to join in the musical activities joined the Mixed Choir. The Concert Girl's Choir and Concert Girl's Ensemble also consisted of sophomores, juniors and seniors. These groups practiced vocal music fundamentals used in a variety of song types.

Performing daily, members of Concert Band I practiced contemporary forms of band literature to present at their semester concerts. Meanwhile, Concert Band II kept the beat to more difficult band compositions. Members of this group worked hard with the hopes of progressing to the Symphonic Band.

From high in the bleachers, football fans clearly heard the L.H.S. Symphonic Band working to boost Flyer spirits. As the accompanists for the pom-pon girl's, this band became Lindbergh's most renowned instrumental group. Their most noteworthy performance came, though, when they were invited to perform for the Missouri Music Educators Association in Jefferson City.

Approximately eighty-five faithful musicians of the bass, clarinet, tuba, flute, violin, trumpet, and trombone met daily. As the Lindbergh High School Orchestra, these musicians performed at on and off campus concerts.

Select musicians from the Orchestra improved their chamber skills in the Chamber Orchestra. Known for their skill at performing classical works, this group was invited to perform in the community for local churches. These musicians were often honored as solo performances at music functions.

Striving to perfect performances, members of the Brass Choir devoted many after-school hours to practice. They were rewarded with top ratings for outstanding performances at the St. Louis Music Educators Association Solo and Ensemble Festival.

Presenting the lighter side of music at L.H.S. was the Stage Band. Members of this organization prefered to perform pop and jazz numbers. Besides school concert and community appearances, the Stage Band provided music for the 1977 Variety Show.

The many music organizations at Lindbergh provided innumerable opportunities for students to express themselves as well as enjoy the performing arts. Through these instrumental and vocal groups the community, along with the student body, was both entertained and instructed.

Below: LHS girls overcome many hurdles as the track team races to a successful season.

RIVALRY ROAD

Remember sweating out practice under the hot sun. Cheerleading and pom-pon tryouts meant smiling until your face hurt so you would make it then crying because you did. Remember the starvation before a wrestling match so you would not tip the scales. Losing meant a long, bus ride back to school and running extra laps until you thought your legs would fall off. Remember when the coaches yelled at you for flirting with the girls. Remember giving it your all until exhaustion overwhelmed you but then finding one last drop of strength to carry you to victory in the final seconds.

Athletics is more than the infamous "thrill of victory-and-agony of defeat", hours of practice, and tired, aching muscles. It is joining others to share a sense of accomplishment. Competition with rival schools forms bonds between you, your teammates, and the fans. This struggle to equal and excell the performances of the opponent make lasting memories for us. We will long remember these Rivalry Roads.

Several Lindbergh teams proudly are "Number One."

Football

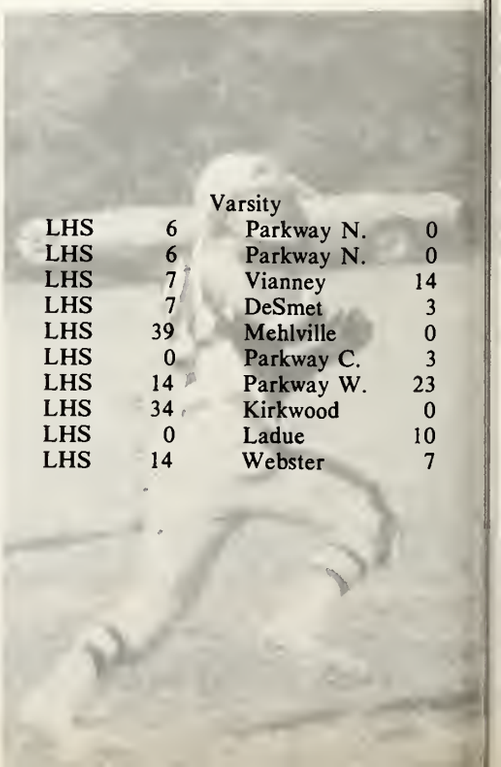

"The 1978 Football Team will be remembered as an outstanding defensive team with many fine players."

Coach Mach

A fine defense led the Varsity Football Flyers to a winning season. Breaking five Lindbergh passing records, quarterback Mike Hyde guided the team to several outstanding games. The Varsity Flyers defeated the number one team, DeSmet High School. Fans saw explosive scoring power when the team beat Kirkwood 34 to 0 on Homecoming Day. The Flyers finished their season with a fifty-seven yard touchdown pass against Webster Groves in the last seven seconds of the game.

The First Team All Conference honors went to Mike Hyde, Randy Theiss, Tom Anderson, George Morrison, Jay Myers, and Jeff Haffner. All Metro honors went to Mike Hyde, Randy Theiss, and Tom Anderson. Steve Mosier and Mike Zander made Third Team All Conference. All Conference Honorable Mention awards went to Dwight Bouck and John Higgins.

Cross Country

"Using the team concept, we proudly took first in the state and third in the nation."

Craig Miller

The 1977 Cross Country team proved itself to be the finest in the state. Record after record was broken. This year marked the fourth consecutive state championship, beating the record held by Kirkwood. Rick Winkelhoch, Dave Nassar, Tim Decker, Bob Walther, Steve Hornung, and Bryan Blackford worked as a team to bring home the trophy they rightfully deserved. Perseverance, determination, and enthusiasm led to a record-perfect season under the direction of Coaches McCracken and Pourchot.

Soccer

"Hard work was the essence of the season."

Coach Puricelli

Proudly standing behind an 18-8-1 record, the Lindbergh Varsity Soccer team, guided by Coach Mehroff, went beyond their goals this year. John Rubin scored sixteen goals, the most by an individual player in school history. The rest of the team scored a total of fifty-four points, breaking the record for most goals scored in a season.

Goalie Don Lipka had six shutout games, and Jim Lange had four shut-outs.

The Lindbergh Volleyball Team became stiff competition for other St. Louis high schools. The team won the league tournament held at Ladue as well as winning the conference tournament. A few girls were voted to be all stars; on the first team was Brenda Rethmeier and Laura Hylla. Second team included Lisa Loeffelman, and honorable mention was Denise Foerstel. These girls did their best and ended the season with a 13-1 record.

Undaunted by their lack of experience but outstanding in their spirit and effort, the girls' Softball Team outplayed their opponents to complete a winning season. In only its second year of existence, the team was impressive as they finished their season with a record of nine victories and only three defeats. Coach Beezley saw the team's defeat over Parkway as the season's most important game however, the girls were probably most proud of their conference championship.

Steve Duban

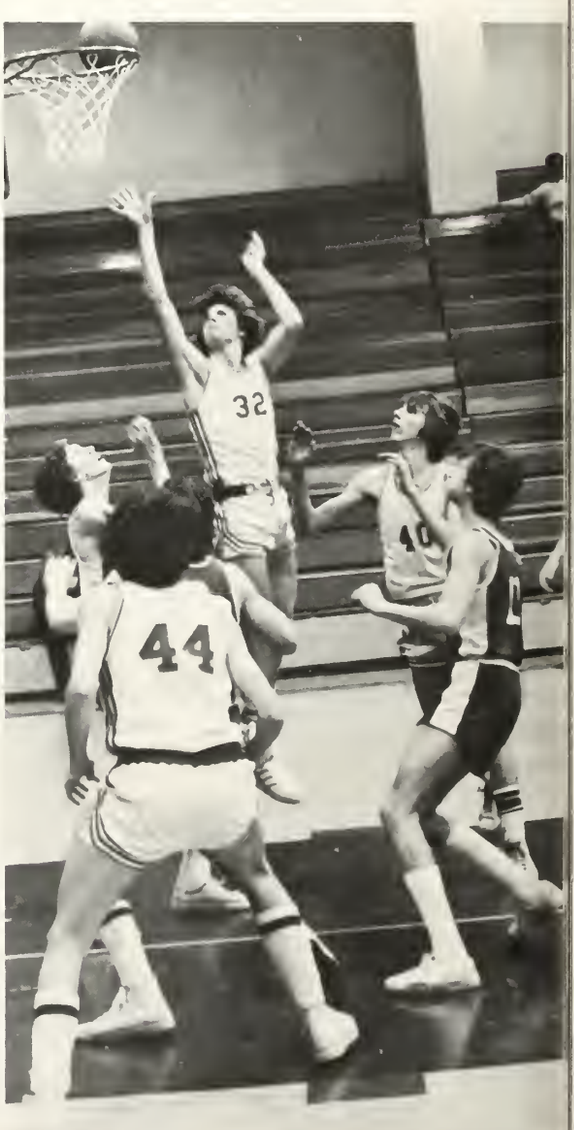

Varsity Basketball shot for the best by bringing back a second place trophy from the Vianney Tournament. Two players that stood out on the court were Milt Moravek (team captain) and Most Valuable Player Jeff Boemer. Freshmen Green had an excellent year finishing with ten wins and six losses and placing second in the Mehlville Invitational. Freshmen Gold tallied four wins and eight losses. Jeff Malone averaged a respectable 19.7 points per game.

A water-logged field typified a soggy season but rain did not dampen the Girls' Soccer Team's spirit or enthusiasm. The team braved muddy fields and nippy afternoons for their daily practices. Their efforts were rewarded as the girls compiled a league record of eight wins, two losses and an over-all record of ten wins, three losses. Stephanie Dutton was honored as Most Valuable Player; however, the season's highlight for all the team came on May 20, 1978, when they proved themselves the 1978 St. Louis District Champions.

With the swing of a racquet, the ball whizzed through the air, across the net, and into the opposition's territory. The opponent returned the serve and competition for the Girls' Tennis Team continued. Working together under Coach Modde's guidance, the team achieved an admirable over-all record of ten wins, four losses and a league record of four wins, three losses.

The Boys' Tennis Team proved that the saying "age makes no difference if you are good" was true in 1978. Coach Puricelli emphasized that even though the boys were young (There were no senior members.), they were very good. Gregg Busch, Jim Syrett, and Chris Marziotti, the top three singles players, led their team to a 14-3 season, while the doubles team of Jim Syrett and Chris Marziotti travelled to the state meet.

With one eye closed, the girl held her club ahead of her so she could line up her shot. In routine afternoon practice sessions, the Girls' Golf Team worked to perfect both putts and drives. The team had a 4-4 season under the supervision of Coach Lorch and also set a record with a par of 38. Outstanding golfer, Patti Gaia, also set a Lindbergh record at the district meet when she scored an 89 par.

When 4:00 rolled around, green and gold filled the starting blocks. The gun split the silence and the Flyers plunged toward victory.

With fifty-three wins in a row and an undefeated record in dual and tri-meets for the last ten years, the Lindbergh Track Team broke old records and established new ones. Outstanding achievements by Rick Winkelhoch in the 880 yard run and in the two-mile relay team (also consisting of Tim Decker, Dave Nassar, Chris Kotsis) resulted in a fine fifth place finish in the state meet.

Circling the course and struggling for perfect times, over fifty girls put their best foot forward to compete in a one-time male-dominated sport. After placing first in the Francis Howell Relays, the Girls' Track Team worked hard to end their season with a perfect league record of seven wins and no losses. Led by outstanding runners, Linda Smith, Lynne Kruse, Jacque Reed, Tammy Hillemeyer, and Nancy Willman, the team received many individual first place awards and a team ranking of fifth place in state competition. With increased enthusiasm, girls' track participants were proudly able to say "Watch out, boys; here we come."

With precision strokes, the swimmer cut through the water, made a flip turn off the wall, and went into another lap. She was helping the Girls' Swim Team capture a fifth place ranking in state competition. Miss Buckner, swimming coach, said that having a lot of depth helped the team to place second in the Parkway West Relays and third in the area's hardest league and district.

The 400 yard free style relay squad of Jayne Everding, Cindy Zimmerman, Laura Wacker, and Teri Neu captured a second place in state competition. It was an over-all team effort that guided the swimmers to their best season yet.

Baseball

"The team had fantastic talent and team effort, but we had a hard time coordinating ourselves for a winning season."

Kevin Tulley

Whack! As bat and ball connected, the Flyer flew around the bases to home plate and scored another run. Fans were treated to such exhibitions often as the hard-hitting Lindbergh bat men finished the season with nine wins and five losses. The 1978 baseball team pitched, hit, and threw their way to the Suburban South Co-Championship. Steve Mosier, named to All-State First Team and Terry Buffaloe, who received All-State Honorable Mention, led the team. They were backed by fellow teammates who were named to All District, All Regional, and Suburban South All Star teams.

The J.V. team also worked for a winning season of eight wins, six losses, and one tie.

Cheerleaders

"Spirit is a basic factor in the development of a good school, and we do our part by cheering for the teams at Lindbergh."

Shelly Merritt

The green and gold ladies that kept spirits high gave a good exhibition of their talents last summer at the cheerleading camp. First hour practices weren't the only things that kept them on their toes. They joined the Pom Pon squad to sponsor the Turnabout Dance and held their cheerleading clinic April 10-21.

SOPHOMORE; Row One: L. O'Brien, J. Kelly, B. Passiglia, J. Morris, K. Swaney, C. Ackermann, S. Harmon. Row Two: M. Rowe, L. Swank, E. Overton, B. Blaine (2nd from top), T. Tanaka (pyramid top).

"The squad worked together to provide a colorful atmosphere for those attending the football and basketball games."

Row One: D. Lynch, L. Kalbac, V. Decker, L. Leemann, L. Boscacci, Row Two: G. Weber, C. Rowland, T. Milligan, J. Dussold, C. Kraatz, S. Eastwood, K. Minks, C. Carmona Row Three: L. Cunningham, C. Walther, Row Five: S. Wieting, L. Passanisi, A. Chapman, L. Barthel, L. Jung, J. Jakovljev.

"One, two, three, four, step, kick!" Mrs. Cole's voice rang through the Commons as the record player provided music for the thirty-six pom-pon girls working to perfect their routine. Mrs. Cole and her co-sponsors, Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Summa kept a watchful eye, helping the girls polish their presentation before Saturday's game.

Besides entertaining fans at Lindbergh football and basketball games, the 1977-78 squad was honored for their performances outside school. Because of their quality exhibitions, they were invited to join eleven other area high school squads in a televised performance at the Thanksgiving Day Cardinal football game at Busch Stadium. Participation in the Badgerette Clinic, as well as other workshops, and sponsoring the Turnabout Dance kept the girls busy. The 1977-78 Pom-pon Squad highlighted their year as they captured first place honors in the Metropolitan Area Pom-pon Association Second Annual Competition.

Officers: L. Leemann, Co-Captain, V. Decker, Co-Captain, L. Kalbac, Secretary-Treasurer.

8. Rick Winkelhoch — Cross Country Boys' Track
9. Missy Scott — Girls' Gymnastics

A winning team must have enthusiasm, spirit, and desire as well as ability. A complete team effort is the determining factor in winning or losing a game. Although Lindbergh athletics claimed many top-notch athletes in the 1977-1978 sports season, there were a few who stood out from the rest. Perhaps, they showed more enthusiasm or drive; perhaps, they had greater ability; perhaps, they combined these talents. With hard work, they proved themselves not only outstanding, but also deserving of the title, "Most Valuable Player."

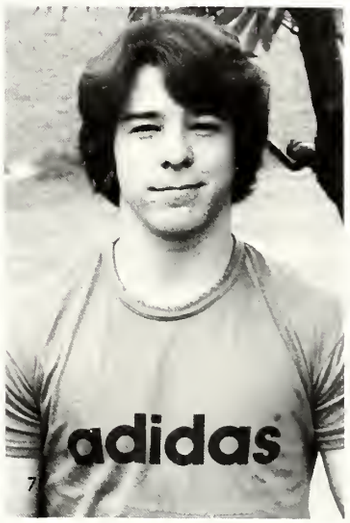

1. Tim Keith — Boys' Gymnastics, Boys' Swimming
2. Jim Syrett — Boys' Tennis
3. Cindy Jackson — Softball
4. John Rubin — Boys' Soccer
5. Patti Gaia — Girls' Golf
6. Stephanie Dutton — Girls' Soccer, Field Hockey
7. Mike Flick — Wrestling
8. Laura Hylla — Volleyball

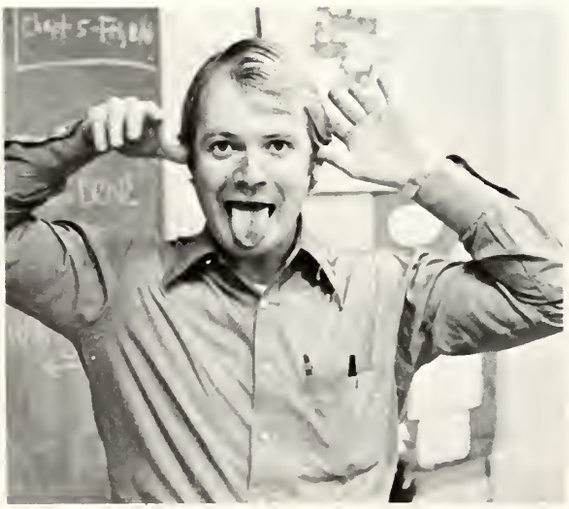

Missing: Jeff Boemer — Boys' Basketball

Below: Mr. McGuffey provides a unique insight for his psychology classes.

Perhaps, as a child, you always had the role of teacher when friends played "school". Perhaps, younger brothers and sisters always sought you to help them with math problems or to explain new words in their reading books. Perhaps, one of your teachers helped you to lead others along the same roads to learning. Whatever your motivation, you now find that you have assumed the position titled, "Educator."

You realize you are a teacher every Monday morning at 7:30 a.m., and you are more sure than ever at 2:50, Friday afternoon. You know you are a teacher when the terms "shortage of funds" and "reduction in force" send a chill down your spine. The rewards come when you see faces turn from expressions of confusion to expressions of understanding. Exchanging ideas and giving all you have experienced and learned is what your job is all about. As you devote your life to your students, you help them along life's roads. You take care of them, pave their ways, and maintain a learning environment. You have become one of the Road Crew.

ENDLESS HIGHWAYS

Adults often tell you that these years, your high school years, are the best times of your life. As you wonder where they get such notions, you think about what they say and you remember many things — some major, some minor, but all of them important to you. You remember goofing around when you should have been studying. Many times, you felt unsure in the midst of a crowd as you sought your identity and learned the meaning of friendship. But, you laughed in the face of skeptics and dreamed your own impossible dreams. First dances, new romances, driver's tests, and first job interviews marked your way along the roads you travelled.

Sometimes, the list of good times, bad times, friends, and acquaintances you encounter as your journey through high school seems to stretch into infinity. High school means many faces, as well as many places and experiences. Memories begin where actualities end; therefore, these years and their contents serve as our guides for many years. They become our Endless Highways.

Chills . . .

6:15 a.m.-Ears are pressed against radios. Finally, the long awaited but welcome message is on the air: "Lindbergh School District-no school." As sleepy but content students roll over for a few more hours sleep, zero hour students, already at school, do a donut on the snow-covered parking lot and head for home.

Despite a newly implemented snow route schedule (which did not affect the high school but which did delay other Lindbergh schools), L.H.S. students were treated to such "snow days" during the 1977-78 school year. While most Lindbergh students happily accepted these unplanned holidays, they soon learned they would have to later pay for their privilege of staying home.

To meet state requirements, students found themselves making up days lost. Record and teacher meeting days became school days. Students even found themselves putting in an extra one-half hour everyday for a month to fulfill the requirements.

Mother nature gave St. Louis a near record-breaking amount of snow during the 1977-78 winter. Forgetting they would pay later, many L.H.S. students also thanked her for giving them days to cheer about.

When the school district approved a snow route schedule, L.H.S. students had to brave severe weather to come to school.

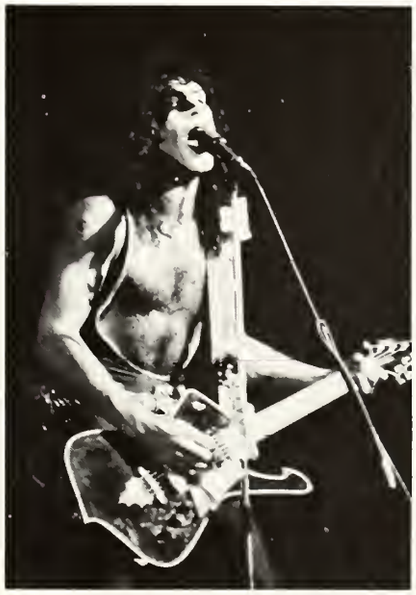

Thrills . . . And Spills.

The 2:20 bell rang and the blue jean clad sixteen-year-old rushed out of class. She had to hurry to the headquarters of KSHE radio station to get tickets for the upcoming concert. As the number one rock group in America, Fleetwood Mac put on one of the best St. Louis concerts. The number one rock song in America in 1977 was "Hotel California" by the Eagles.

Lindbergh tastes agreed, for the greatest part, with those of the rest of the country. A few Lindbergh favorites also included Ted Nugent, Bob Seger, Rush, and KISS (as photographed here by E. Dodel).

The boy whizzed down the sloped sidewalk, leaned into a turn, swept down the hill, and flipped his board into the air. He had completed another turn on his skateboard.

Some called it a sport; others called it a fad. Despite its label, in 1978 skateboarding became more popular in St. Louis than it had ever been before. Its advocates could get boards in a variety of colors and qualities. Wood boards were available for as little as $8.00 while the true enthusiast may have had a fiberglass board costing as much as $100.

These miniature surfboard-shaped boards mounted on wheels provided a challenge for the rider. He had to exhibit skill as well as agility. At the end of his run, the lucky rider felt the jublilant feeling of accomplishment while the unlucky felt the pain of defeat.

Opportunities
dangle before us,
tempting,
like the golden rings

which has so many times
been handled
but never held.

A smile
can make a frown disappear.
Underneath, happiness and joy
Are ready to burst
And flow into conversation.
It may be contagious
And the whole word
Will smile back
Because one person
Grasped the opportunity
To forget his troubles
And spread a little love.

Remember
life as a "green"
frosh,
a sassy soph,
an anticipating junior,
and then getting your first case of senioritis.
Look back at your first formal dance,
those cafeteria
lunches,
cheering for the
"Green and Gold",
the Everbrowns,
cruising McDonald's,
the Hangar Dances,
the bond issue,
final exams,
snow days,
and skip day.
Reflect upon
stirring ideas,
agonizing moments,
added friendships,
smiles,
tears,
graduation,
and that last wave
good-by.

Signs Of The Times

Bobby sox, letter sweaters, leather jackets, pony tails, crew cuts, and the jitterbug immortalized the 1950's Lindbergh High School student. During the 1960's, Lindbergh student's wore mini-skirts; frayed, hip-hugger jeans; T-shirts, long hair, and they enjoyed free-style dances to hard rock. Like their earlier counterparts, 1978 Lindbergh students created an image all their own.

L.H.S. students became more fashion-conscious in 1978. That was the year for boots, gauchos, and skirts that bowed to even longer lengths. With physical fitness in mind, sweat suits, gym shorts and down ski coats and vests became not only socially acceptable for public wear, but even popular. Feathered bangs, and short hair replaced earlier styles. Stick pins were the jewelry of the day and the brave even double-pierced their ears.

Leisure time found 1978 students preoccupied with frisbees, munching on Pop Rocks candy that burst in your mouth, and driving smaller cars. "Star Wars" was the most talked about movie, but "Saturday Night Fever" led couples to the dance floor where they stepped to the disco beat. "Quarter Pounder People" and cruisers alike were still drawn to McDonald's to satisfy appetites as they socialized.

Editors' Note

Within these pages, we reflected the many roads we travelled in the last year. Leafing through the book will revive many memories.

Our goal was to capture and record, through words and pictures, expressions, events, and ideas of days past. To fulfill our goal, teamwork and cooperation were needed. The staff spent many grueling hours planning and re-planning, drawing and redrawing pages. But, in the long run, all agree it was well worth the time and effort. We have learned many things: how to discuss and share ideas, how to work out dilemnas, how to solve problems without leaving scars, and how to discover new horizons of imagination and creativity. These experiences made the black and white pages of this book become colorful parts of our lives.

In the years to come, we will look back on our high school years, and we will recall the many memories. As today's realities become tomorrow's memories and today's dreams become tomorrow's realities, we hope you enjoy this record of the journeys you made during the past year. We also hope your roads to the future lead to happiness and success.

Many people helped the staff make the 1978 SPIRIT a reality. We would like to say thank you to:

Miss Kerlagon whose patience and guidance made this yearbook possible.

Dr. Leroy Amen for his support and assistance.

Mr. Jones, Dr. Hardin, Mr. Smith, Mr. Coplin, Dr. Leibner, and Mr. Lema.

Mrs. Dreppard and the other secretaries.

Mrs. Kerls who tediously typed the Senior Directory.

Mr. McGuffey and Student Council for their promotion of the SPIRIT.

Mr. Puricelli and the many other helpful faculty members.

Mr. Jim Combs and Ms. Doris Busch of American Yearbook Company for their helpful advice and encouragement.

Ms. Sophie Parashak and the photographers of Vincent Price Studios.

Mr. John Adams, our underclassmen photographer.

And thanks most of all to you, the people who made the story of this yearbook possible. Without you, there would be no story to tell.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
